

CALL FOR PAPERS

14th PhD-Student Workshop on Industrial and Public Economics (WIPE)

Reus, February 5th – 6th 2026

Organized by

ECO-SOS Research Center on Economics and Sustainability
(Universitat Rovira i Virgili)

The Research Center on Economics and Sustainability (ECO-SOS) is a research center created in 2010 as CREIP (Research Center in Industrial and Public Economics), that recently moved to sustainability issues, in line with research interests of its members. Specifically, ECO-SOS studies the connection between sustainability and the following areas of interest: environmental and climate economics, health economics, regional and urban economics, education and labor market business and innovation, energy and natural resources, industrial organization, economic policy, game theory and environmental conflicts, and transport and tourism.

Workshop objectives

WIPE aims to be an academic meeting for PhD students to interact with other young scholars, postdoc, and senior researchers to exchange experiences, research ideas, ongoing projects, and future research activities in the fields of Industrial Organization and Public Economics. WIPE will include about 18-20 presentations, each of them being discussed by a participant at the workshop, and will also host a keynote lecture by Bettina Klaus (University of Lausanne, Switzerland). Former keynote speakers at WIPE have been: Philip McCann (The University of Manchester), Andrés Carvajal (University of California), Inés Macho (UAB and BSE), Mar Reguant (Northwestern University), Natalia Fabra (UC3M), Kai Konrad (Max Planck Institute), Mark Armstrong (University of Oxford), Alessandro Gavazza (LSE), Luis Cabral (NYU), Jose Luis Moraga-Gonzalez (VU Amsterdam), Tommaso Valletti (Imperial College London), Xavier Vives (IESE), and Massimo Filippini (ETH Zürich).

Keynote Speaker

Bettina Klaus (University of Lausanne, Switzerland). Bettina Klaus is Professor of Microeconomic Theory at the Faculty of Business and Economics (HEC), University of Lausanne. She earned her PhD in 1998 from Maastricht University and has held academic positions in the United States (University of Nebraska–Lincoln, Harvard Business School), Catalonia (Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona), and the Netherlands (Maastricht University) before joining the University of Lausanne in 2009. Her research interests include fair division, market design, matching theory, and social choice theory. She currently is the President of the Society for Social Choice and Welfare.

WIPE Awards

During the 14th WIPE the Department of Economics will award the young researcher presenting the best paper of the workshop. Furthermore, the Chair for the Promotion of Firm Innovation will award the young researcher presenting the best paper on R&D and innovation. Each prize consists on a EUR 600 cash award.

The decision will be taken by a jury composed by members designed by the Department of Economics and the Organizing Committee of the WIPE, and the verdict will be announced during the closure of the workshop. Note that in exceptional and duly justified cases, the jury may award two papers, and the prize will be divided equally.

Submission of papers

Full papers should be submitted electronically in PDF format to eco-sos@urv.cat by December 9th 2025 (EXTENDED DATE). The front page of the document should include the title, authors, affiliations, contact details, and a short abstract. The deadline for notification of accepted papers is December 19th 2025.

Location and Travelling

Located right in the centre of the Costa Daurada and at less than one hour from Barcelona, Reus is a medium-sized city well known for its shopping, modernist heritage and its close relationship to the architect Antoni Gaudí.
